

2008 BIO FOR COACH KIRK CROSS

Offensive Line Coach
Special Teams Coordinator

Kirk Cross is entering his 6th year as a Longhorn football coach. Coach Cross is from Pigeon Forge, TN. (Go Vols!) He played defensive tackle for Carson Newman College with the Eagles winning three national championships during his years there. (1983, 1984, and 1986)

This is Coach Cross 22nd year in coaching. He previously worked as a graduate assistant for one year at Carson Newman; 11 years at Wheeler High as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator, and was the head coach at Pigeon Forge High for 4 years. Coach Cross teaches Anatomy and Physiology, Forensic science and Biology at Kell.

The most important thing in Coach Cross' life is his family. He has been married to Connie for 16 years. His son Seth is 14 and will be a freshman at Kell, his daughter Taylor is 11 and attends McCleskey. Other than sports and spending time with family, Coach Cross may be one of the best trout fishermen in the state of Georgia.
