

Joe Tousignaut begins his fourth year, three of which coaching Defensive Line, at Kell High School. His experience includes coaching every phase of the defense and while maintaining championship teams at the high school, college (NCAA II and III) and club (semi pro) level teams (both in the United States and Europe) since 1993.

Coach Tous graduated from Albion College in 1990 where he played Linebacker for the Briton football team. This fall he is honored with induction into the Albion College Hall of Fame as a member of the 1989 MIAA championship football team.

Joe, his wife Jeannette and two children, Annabell (5) and Brendan (3), live in Canton, Georgia.