

Coach Todd Utt graduated from Morgantown High School, in Morgantown West Virginia where he played football. While there he was a second team All State offensive lineman and was selected to play in the West Virginia/Maryland Coaches All-Star Classic.

He attended Fairmont State University and was a three year letterman on the offensive line for the Fighting Falcons. While at Fairmont State Coach Utt earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Health and Physical Education and is also certified in Special Education. After leaving Fairmont State he played 6 years of semi professional football with the Georgia X-treme and was selected to the leagues all-star team each of those seasons, and was also voted offensive lineman of the year four of the six years with the X-treme.

Todd Utt started his teaching career at North Cobb High School in 1999 where he spent seven years coaching a variety of sports such as football, wrestling, track, and soccer. He has been at South Cobb High School for the past three years. This is Coach Utt's second season at Kell. He also has two daughters, Madison (10) and Morgan (6).